ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The Hong Kong Football Club, the premier sports club in Asia, was founded by Sir James Haldane Stewart Lockhart in 1886. Since 1886, the Club, apart from the period when Hong Kong was occupied during the Second World War, has progressed to become the leading sporting club in Asia and has also become a major element of the social life in the Region.

The Club has the largest range of facilities of any club in Asia and is one of the finest sporting clubs to be found anywhere in the world. All sporting facilities are free and no charges whatsoever are made to Members using the facilities apart from payment of the monthly subscription fee.

International Sporting events are regularly held at the Club including the International Rugby 10's, International Soccer 7's, International Hockey 6's tournaments and International Squash 3's as well as a number of world class international Bowls tournaments. The Club has also provided the venue for the inaugural World Doubles Squash Championships and regularly plays host to numerous sports teams and sporting personalities.
