EXTRACT OF SINGAPORE RECREATON CLUB CONSTITUTION – RULE 19

19. ABSENT MEMBERSHIP

- (a) Except for a Junior, Sporting and Visiting Member, a Member shall be considered an Absent Member when he shall have left Singapore and shall be liable for 30% of his Subscription during his absence. Such member shall pay in advance the reduced Subscription for the full absence period. No member shall be considered an Absent Member until he has notified the General Manager/Secretary in writing with satisfactory evidence for his absence and his Absence Membership has been formally approved by the Committee in its sole discretion.
- (b) An Absent Member shall inform the Club of his forwarding address or any changes thereto.
- (c) Each application for Absent Membership shall be limited to a period not exceeding six (6) months. The Committee shall not consider any application for any period less than one (1) month.
- (d) On his return to Singapore he shall no longer be considered an Absent Member and shall be liable for his full subscriptions from the date of his return. Failure to inform the Club of his return will be considered a breach of discipline and the Committee shall be empowered to take appropriate action under Rule 30 of the Club's Constitution.
- (e) Any member who faces a disciplinary charge or who has been in the defaulter's list shall not be eligible to apply for Absent Membership.
- (f) The Committee may, in its discretion, remove any member from the list of Absent Members if he has been absent from Singapore for a period exceeding six months.
